9

Hi! I'm Meredith from Britain. I'm interested in karate. Karate is a martial art from Japan, and it is very popular in my country nowadays. I take karate classes after school. Before the class begins, I wear white trousers, a white jacket and a black belt. While a black belt is a symbol of great achievement in the martial arts, the belt itself is not the ultimate goal. The real reward is in the new self-awareness this belt represents. Then I stand with the other students, bow our instructor, and the class begins. We just need our hands and feet to do karate. In Britain, even small children aged 5 or 6 can do karate. I think it is too exciting, but it is not dangerous.

In the text above, there is no information about

- A) the mean of black belt in karate
- B) the equipment for karate
- C) the reasons of popularity of karate in Britain
- D) her thoughts about karate
